Connects camcorder, video recorder and other analogue video sources to your laptop or PC

The image shows the product box for the SilverCrest USB Video Grabber. On the left side, there is a green vertical panel listing the contents: 1 x USB video grabber (USB 2.0), 1 x video/audio connection adaptor, 1 x S-video cable, 1 x audio/video cable, 1 x USB cable, and 1 x SCART adaptor. Each item is accompanied by a small image. The main part of the box is white and features the SilverCrest logo and the product name 'USB Video Grabber' in large green letters. Below the name, it says 'for easily digitising analogue video recordings'. A large image of the USB grabber device with its various cables (S-video, audio, video) is shown. At the bottom, a diagram illustrates the connection process: a camcorder is connected to the grabber, which is then connected to a laptop or PC. The text 'Connects camcorder, video recorder and other analogue video sources to your laptop or PC' is written above this diagram. A small 'imgED' logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the box.
